

REMEMBRANCE ROW

The Royal Canadian Legion is proud to support the Navy Bike Ride's Remembrance Row. This moving virtual feature showcases veterans who have passed as a way to honour loved ones that served.

As this year marks the 80th anniversary of the Women's Royal Canadian Naval Service (WRCNS), we have a special interest in featuring some of the women who served in this service.

Submissions are now being accepted for the 2022 Navy Bike Ride's Remembrance Row. If you wish to take part in this year's edition of Remembrance Row, please read the instructions below.

Please submit the following information to: nbrinfodvm@gmail.com

- Name of veteran
- Veteran's military title
- Unit/regiment (optional)
- Year of birth/year of death
- Photo with caption
- Short story about the veteran

SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

Submissions must be completed by a registered participant in the 2022 Navy Bike Ride virtual event.

All submissions will be reviewed and approved by the Navy Bike Ride. The Navy Bike Ride may edit the content for clarity or length.

Only "Information" style content will be accepted. Other formats will not be accepted.

"I joined to honour my Grandfather"

Anyone can join and become a member of the Legion.

JOIN TODAY AT LEGION.CA

